Notes: The City Council and the Festival Committee reserve the right to alter, modify, or cancel any event in this programme.

On days when events are held in the Plaça del Coc, road access will be closed beforehand. You are therefore asked not to park your vehicles there.

Access for children and adolescents under 14 years old to the correbaus (bull-running events), bulls entering the arena, "fire" bulls and rope bulls is regulated by Law 34/2010, October 1, of the Generalitat of Catalonia Presidency Department, prohibiting their presence.

Additionally, participation is prohibited for anyone lacking the necessary physical or mental conditions. Attendance at any bull-related event is voluntary and it is important to be aware of the inherent risks.

Residents of St. Sebastià, Constància, de la Cinta, de l'Àngel, trav. Devesa, Calderón de la Barca, trav. del Àngel and Migdia streets are reminded that on July 19 at 11:30 pm there will be two "fire" bull events, and on July 22, 23, 24, 26 and 27 at 11 am, bull entrances,. Residents are asked not to park their vehicles in the street and to take the necessary measures to safeguard their properties within the enclosed area.

On the July 26 at 10:30 pm, the correfocs (fire-running) will take place following the itinerary outlined in the programme. Therefore, the Festival Committee requests that the following safety measures be observed: refrain from parking vehicles on the route, keep doors and windows closed, lower blinds, protect shop windows and glass, retract awnings, avoid hanging out laundry or displaying items like flags, refrain from placing any obstacles that could hinder the performance or the smooth flow of people (such as flower pots, tables, chairs, etc.), and refrain from throwing water until after the fire-runners have passed.

Paella Contest. Participating groups must register in advance by email at festes@larapita.cat between July 8 and 17. Each group can have a maximum of 20 people. Individuals handling the paella pan must be at least 18 years old. The organising body will provide each participating group with 1 kg of rice per 10 people, salt and water. Participants are responsible for providing the remaining ingredients. They must bring a paella pan, cooker, butane/wood (groups using wood must inform organisers in advance to ensure that they meet optimal conditions), utensils (plates, cutlery, glasses, etc.), and drinks. The organisers will set up a bar as part of the event. Each group is responsible for cleaning their space after cooking the paella. The organising body will not be liable for any accidents during the contest, although they will make every effort to prevent them.

The contest jury will consist of local professionals. The winning group will receive a prize consisting of a cured ham, a bottle of cava (sparkling wine), a bottle of wine, a bottle of rice liquor and a basket of fruit and vegetables.
